SAMUEL WHITE STEWART.

AMONG law firms of Utah, none is more prominent or successful than the firm of Stewart, Stewart & Alexander of Salt Lake City. The most prominent and successful of this prominent and successful firm is Judge Samuel White Stewart, senior member.

Judge Stewart was born May 21, 1867, at Draper, Salt Lake county, Utah. He was the son of Isaac M. Stewart and Elizabeth White Stewart. He was educated in the public and private schools of Salt Lake City, the University of Utah and the University of Michigan. He graduated from the Michigan school in 1892 with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

He began practice in Utah and was admitted to the bars of the supreme courts of the United States, of Utah and of Michigan. He has served in the state legislature and was chairman of the judiciary committee of the House of Representatives of the Third legislature in 1898.

From 1901 to 1905 he occupied the bench of the Third Judicial district and twice since 1905 has been the nominee of the Democratic party for the district bench. In 1907, he was its nominee for the supreme court. From 1908 to the present time, he has been a member of the State Board of Corrections. He is a member of the American Society of Jurisprudence, president of the Stewart Ranch Company and vice-president of the Kamas State Bank of Kamas, Utah.

Judge Stewart was married September 19, 1894 to Ella M. Nebeker and resides at 35 East First North Street, Salt Lake City.